INTENT TO ACQUIRE CERTIFICATE IN INTERNATIONAL AND COMPARATIVE LAW

Key Information:

1. Once you determine that you would like to pursue the Certificate in International and Comparative Law, contact Assistant Director Ira H. Trako to review your interests. She can be reached via email (trako@slu.edu) or telephone (314) 977-2792. You should plan to meet with her as soon as you decide to pursue the certificate. This will assist in seeing that requirements are satisfied for graduation.
2. Complete this Intent to Acquire Certificate in International and Comparative Law Form and submit it to Assistant Director Ira H. Trako in the Room 937.
3. Receive a letter of approval indicating that you have been scheduled to receive the certificate upon graduation.
4. Receive the certificate during graduation ceremonies.

I intend on pursuing the certificate in international and comparative law. I understand it is my primary responsibility to track my progress in completing the certificate requirements. I understand if I plan to fulfill the certificate writing requirement with something other than a paper in a designated international and comparative law seminar, I must receive the paper advisor's approval of the topic before I begin the paper.
